

Judy Devall, community tv manager of MidValley Television, a public and government television station, has 34 years of experience in television production.

At MVTV, Devall manages all aspects of the public access station on Charter Cable channels 192 & 194. She handles all budgeting, public relations, promotions, fund raising, and equipment research, purchase and installation. She also acts as a telecommunications liaison and board representative for State and National organizations.

As mentioned earlier, Devall has an extensive background in television production. In 1994, she was a municipal producer of YCTV. She produced, directed, and wrote hundreds of productions throughout her employment. In 1990, she was the production instructor for the Yakima Valley Skills Center. While working there, she produced television programs and worked with students in all phases of television production.

She was also a public relations liaison with the Yakima School District personnel and community, Devall has also held positions with KAPP TV Channel 35 as promotion/programming/public affairs manager and interned at KYVE Channel 47 and KNDO TV Channel 23. Devall's postgraduate education focused on the arts and sciences of television, drama, and new technologies and programs. Devall has been active in the community and wants to share her experiences with local businesses and community members. Please contact Devall at MVTV at 509-865-6888 or e-mail at Judy.Devall@midvalleytv.com

Judy Devall
Community TV Manager